

Schedule 2020 Safety and Cultural Heritage Summit (5th Annual)

Preserving Our Heritage and Protecting Our Health Professional Development Seminar

Thursday, 29 October, 1:00 - 5:00 PM ET

Attend sessions by clicking on the Zoom MAIN WEBINAR link on Moodle course page.
Links below are to presentation and presenter details and related information.

1:00-1:10	Welcome	Laura Hoffman (co-moderator Melissa Miller)
1:10 -2:10	Panel	Not Everything Stops When the Museum Is Closed: A Better Museum is Designed and Built on the Challenge. Panel: Christina Dillard, Shaw Fici, Matthew Gross
2:10 -2:40	Talk	A Safer Work Environment for Stabilization of Moldy Collections. Amber Tarnowski.
2:40-2:45	Break	Visit a Break Resource
2:45-3:15	Talk	Protocols in Practice: Three Case Studies Utilizing and Adapting the Earliest Standards for the Inspection and Decontamination of Paper Records Potentially Contaminated by Rodents. Jo Anne Martinez-Kilgore.
3:15-3:45	Talk	Smithsonian Mass Digitization Work Safe Initiative for COVID-19 and the Future. Jeanine Nault.
3:45-3:55	Break	Visit a Break Resource
3:55 – 4:25	Talk	It all Began with Arsenic: Surveying for and Managing Hazards in the Museum of Vancouver Collection. Hayley Monroe.
4:25 – 4:40	Short Talk	Managing The New York Public Library's Hazardous Collection Materials. Nicole Festa.
4:40 – 4:45	Wrap-up	Melissa Miller
4:50 – 5:30	Social	Visit Zoom Social link on Moodle course page

Friday, 30 October 2020, 1:00 - 5:00 PM ET

1:00-1:05	Welcome	Samantha Snell (co-moderator Rebecca Kennedy)
1:05 -2:45	Discussion Panel	Anywhere But Here: How Industry Cleaning, Decontamination and Ventilation Standards to Eradicate Novel Coronavirus Apply in the Museum Collections Environment. Catharine Hawks (discussion leader), Bernard Fontaine (Industry Cleaning/Decon Techniques), Ed Light (ASHRAE & Ventilation), Daniel Davies (Facility Management Response), Kelly McCauley (Image Permanence Institute).
2:45-2:55	Break	Visit a Break Resource
2:55 – 3:25	Talk	Help! There are no N95s! Options and Alternatives for N95 Respirator Users Kimberly Harmon
3:25-3:55	Talk	Ethical considerations in the removal of hazardous materials from collection objects: case studies from the National September 11 Memorial and Museum. Adrienne Gendron, Lisa Conte, Kerith Koss-Schrager
3:55 – 4:10	Short Talk	Cinnabar pigment in vintage hard rubber products: a case study of early 20th century saxophone mouthpieces. Timothy Rose
4:10 – 4:20	Wrap-up	Gwen Manthey, Kay Dietrich
4:20 – 5:30	Social	Visit Zoom Social link on Moodle course page.

Acknowledgements

The 5th Annual Safety and Cultural Heritage Summit, Preserving Our Heritage and Protecting Our Health Professional Development Seminar (Thursday, 29 October and Friday, 30 October 2020, 1:00 - 5:00 PM) would not have been possible without coordination from:

- The Potomac Section of the American Industrial Hygiene Association
- The Washington Conservation Guild
- Lunder Conservation Center, Smithsonian American Art Museum
- Smithsonian Office of Safety, Health & Environmental Management
- Smithsonian National Collections Program

With Special Appreciation to the Committee

- Laura Hoffman, Amber Kerr (Lunder Conservation Center)
- Kathryn Makos, Kay Dietrich, Joy Erdman (Potomac Local Section of the AIHA)
- Anne Marigza, Gwen Manthey (Washington Conservation Guild)
- Rebecca Kennedy (Curae Collections Care LLC)
- Janice Ruggles, Kate McPhaul (Smithsonian Facilities, OSHEM)
- Samantha Snell, Melissa Miller (Smithsonian National Collections Program)
- Mia Musolino (Smithsonian Office of the Chief Information Officer)

Stay safe and we hope to see you again next year!